THE TRIBUNE.

DANVILLE:
FRIDAY, JULY 30, 1852.

A FEW "STRAWS."

The Democratic paper published at Macon, and the only Democratic Union paper in Georgia, refuses to support Pierce and King, and comes out nobly for the Whig nominees.

A SCOTT CLUB has been organized at Harrisburg, Pa., of which Capt. Andrew Krause is President, who served under Gen. Scott in the last war with England.
He has always been an active Democrat, but like hundreds of others of Gen. Scott's old "companions in arms," he will stand by the Old Hero now, as he did in 1814.

Among the list of officers are also found the names of several other gentlemen who have heretofore acted with the opposite party.

The Tribune Eclipse, a Democratic paper printed in Williamson county, is out with an independent ticket, displaying at its mast-head the name of Percifer F. Smith, of Louisiana, for President, and John Y. Mason, of Virginia, for Vice President.

A Democrat of Jefferson county, proposes through one of the city papers, to bet one thousand dollars that Gen. Scott will receive the electoral vote of the great State of Ohio.

At the Whig ratification meeting at P. asburg, Pa., on Monday evening of last week, three soldiers, two of whom were Democrats, who had served with Gen.
Scott in Mexico, made excellent speeches, and avowed their determination to vote for their old commander.

A vote taken on board the fine steamer Cornelia on a recent trip from St. Louis to Louisville stood thus: Scott, cabin 62, deck 16, total 73, Pierce, cabin 9, deck 6, total 15.

The Frankfort Commonwealth says a $51 of a thousand dollars on the general result of the Presidential election was offered in the Yeoman a few days ago, that bet has been taken by a Whig gentleman of this city; and we will add that if the Democracy have any more money to risk, a bet of another thousand on the result in this State will be promptly taken, if offered.

A gentleman in Washington City offers to make three bets of one thousand each, as follows: One that Scott will receive the vote of New York; another that he will receive the vote of Pennsylvania; and another that he will receive the vote of Ohio.

During the recent trip of the steamer W. B. Clifton from New Orleans to Louisville, a vote was taken among the passengers in regard to the Presidency, with the following result. None but the bona fide voters were counted:

For Winfield Scott	150
" Franklin Pierce	74

Majority for Scott 76

The Princeton (Ky.) Republican says: "A very old and respectable Democrat of our county, one who has spent about 70 years in the service of Locofocoism, said in conversation the other day with us, that he reckoned Gen. Pierce would make some men, 'but as for myself,' remarked the old veteran, 'I'm for the old war-horse!'"

"Straws show which way the wind blows."

The following we find in the Lebanon (Ky.) Post of the 21st. It is one of the most bloody encounters we have ever read:

A most terrific and bloody affray occurred on Friday last, at or near the town of Williamsburg, Washington county.
As near as we can glean, the particulars are these: It seems that some eight or ten men were playing cards in a room, when several little altercations took place between different parties, which, however, were quieted down. At length two of them got together, when, the others taking sides, weapons were drawn, and the bloody work commenced.

James Vest was shot through, his brains knocked out, and rumor says, his throat cut. He died instantly. J. L.
Scay was shot and stabbed, but not dangerously. Wat Shoemaker was shot through, one wound through the stomach, thought to be mortal. Abraham Kelley, had a bullet glanced off his forehead, doing nothing more than stunning him.
Tom Harris had the skin covers the wind pipe cut by a ball. Twenty shots at least are said to have been fired.

Since the above was in type, we have been told that it was J. L. Scay, and not Shoemaker who lays in such a critical state.

All the dissatisfaction that was manifested in Boston, on account of Gen Scott's nomination, seems to have passed away. The Young Men's Whig Association, organized expressly for the support of Mr. Webster, has declared itself a Scott association, and the Whig newspapers have all, with the exception of the Courier, raised the Scott flag.

As EXPECTED.—The Boston Rejection meeting proved to be a miserable failure.
It seems that it was gotten up by Democrats, two of whom made speeches abusive of Gen. Scott, for which they were hooted and hissed from the stand. The Boston people could not and would not stand quietly by and hear the glorious old soldier vilified and abused.

SINGULAR.—To see the 'Democratic' papers foolishly trying to create a prejudice in the minds of adopted citizens against Gen. Scott, while all the time, the Philadelphia Sun, the only so-called native American paper, and Lewis C. Levin, the only native representative in Congress, bitterly oppose Gen. Scott and go for Pierce and King!

We find the following despatch in the N. York Herald. So it seems Capt.
CASSIUS M. CLAY, intends to get up a Free Soil Electoral ticket, in Kentucky.
Funny man!

Another Candidate for President.

WASHINGTON, July 17, '52.
I have seen a letter from Cassius M.
Clay, of Kentucky, in which he writes:
"We will run a ticket in this state for President, nominated by the Pittsburg Convention."

Michigan papers state that Maj.
Williams, for many years Mayor of Detroit, and Maj. Keesley, for some time one of the regents of the Michigan University—both influential Democrats and warm personal friends of Gen. Cass—have come out for Scott for President.

KENTUCKY AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS.—
The editor of the Lexington Observer has received specimens of clover, grown by R. Risk, in Scott county, some of the stalks of which measured four feet five inches, and some blades of timothy, measuring over six feet, grown by J.
H. Moore, of Clarke. Also, a white potatoe, from W. Bryan, of Fayette, weighing a pound, and a specimen of superior wool measuring fourteen inches, from O. H. Burbridge, of Bourbon.

MIND YOUR PETERBOOTS.—Newspaper correspondents little dream how many of their communications are thrown under the table, either because they are badly written or written on both sides of a sheet.
The New Orleans Picayune, speaking of the horrible specimens of chirography presented for newspaper publication, cites an instance in which a communication was sent to that office, the title of which being examined by three experienced judges, was decided to be "The Philadelphia Riots." It turned out to be "The Tehuantepec Route."

THE LOST BANK NOTE.—A—was an irregular man nearly sixty years of age. He had long neglected the house of God, and indulged in the use of profane language. One day last winter he lost a bank note in his barn. He sought for it several times, but did not find it.
At length he said to himself—"That note is in the barn, and I will search for it till I find it!" Accordingly he went to the barn, and carefully moved straw and hay hour after hour till he found the note.

He had told me two months before that he knew that his soul was not right with God, and he intended to live a better life and seek salvation. His anxiety increased a few weeks after he lost the note he sent by the fire musing on the state of his soul, when he turned to his wife and asked:

"What must one do to become a Christian?"

"You must seek for it," she replied, 'as you sought for the bank note.'" She said no more. It was "a word fitted spoken." He tried to follow the direction, and thinks that, though the grace and mercy of Christ, he has found the "pearl of great price and rejoices in the hope and the glory of God."

W. H. LINNEY

BEGS leave to inform his old friends and customers, and the public generally, that he has opened a Saddle and Harness Establishment at the above old and well known stand and would respectfully request his patrons of former days, and the friends of the late firm of Linney & Barber, to give him a call. He deems it unnecessary to say anything in regard to the quality of his work, believing that his reputation for turning out good work is too well known to need a word upon that score. He will keep constantly on hand a good and complete assortment of

SADDLES, HARNESS, TRUNKS, BRIDLES, &c.

And everything else in his line, which he will sell as cheap as the cheapest. Do not forget the stand—a few doors above the Central House.

N. B. REPAIRING of all kinds promptly attended to.
